

EXTENDED GRIPS FORUM

GRIPS-U.S. EMBASSY JOINT ENERGY FORUM

“The Future of Energy: Clean and Renewable Energy for a Sustainable and ‘Smart’ Society”

US and Japanese experts in energy will talk about the current situation and the future of energy policies and R&D trends in Japan and the world focusing on clean and renewable energy in order that we may attain sustainable growth.

Part I: GRIPS-U.S. Embassy Joint Forum on the Future of Energy

Speakers & Panelists

Naoya Kaneko
Fellow, Japan Science and Technology Agency

Hiroshi Takahashi
Research Fellow, Fujitsu Research Institute, Ltd.

Paul Komor
Energy Education Director, University of Colorado Boulder

Alan K. Meier,
Senior Scientist, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory

Ryohei Hinokuma
HVAC Market Research Engineer, Daikin US Corporation

MC

Tateo Arimoto
Professor, GRIPS

Moderator

Atsushi Sunami
Associate Professor, GRIPS

Part II: GRIPS Forum

Speaker & a Panelist of Part I

Yoshito Sengoku
Visiting Scholar, GRIPS
Former Chief Cabinet Secretary

May 13 (Mon), 2013 Part I 13:10-16:10, Part II 16:40-18:10

Venue GRIPS 1st Floor Soukairou Hall

In Cooperation with TOMODACHI Initiative, TOSHIBA CORPORATION

Language English&Japanese (Simultaneous interpretation provided)

Fee Free (Pre-registration is required)

Registration <http://goo.gl/PmO8K>

